Prayers

-Margaret Swanson, update on my friend (Charlene Buescher), she finally heard from Mayo on her tests. Her Dr called & said her heart can't tolerate a bone marrow transplant at Mayo...so she will now receive chemo at St Mary's in Duluth next week where she is now a patient. The tests at Mayo show it's early and not the super bad kind of AML Leukemia. She seems happy about that and appreciates all the prayers that have been offered on her behalf. Please keep them up...we know God is listening.

-Prayers for Karen Thooft's cousin (Rick Giles), who passed away from a massive heart attack after Thanksgiving. Prayers for his wife (Janet), parents (Darell and Lois), and brother (Darin) for strength and healing.

-Rennae Petersen, thank you for prayers that have supported us through the past several months. We are overjoyed to report that my sister has her back brace removed from the Sept. car accident and is in therapy, my mom is moved into Long Term Care and adjusting nicely, and Lloyd is down to the last 15 radiation treatments. Please continue to remember us through these times of change.
